Call to Order and Introduction of Guests:

R/C John Robinson called the meeting to order and began by thanking PSPYC members present for hosting the CCA SAF crab feed. Guests were introduced.

Secretary/Treasurer's Report: Zia Ahari was skiing. R/C Robinson commented he had the checkbook safely in hand.

Membership Report: Membership Chair, Bob Van Blaricom, reported that two candidates, Darren Crouse & Mary Crowley had been posted receiving no adverse comments, and would be presented to the national membership committee by John Sanford on 5 March in New York.

Entertainment/Events: Jerry Eaton announced that the next luncheon would be held at the Coast Guard Station, Fort Baker and discussed the activities to be held. Tom Hall presented a possible meeting event where five members would each make a short presentation followed by a question/answer session. He asked for feedback which seemed to be positive. More information will be forthcoming.

Cruise Report: Cruise Chair, Doug Finley, discussed the next two cruises listed below. Bob VanBlaricom, the leader for the Half Moon Bay Cruise indicated we would have dinner at the Half Moon Bay YC on Friday night, the 14th and cocktails aboard on the 15th. Likewise, we'll have dinner at the Solano YC on Friday night, June 25th.

May 14-16

Half Moon Bay Cruise

June 25 - 27

Solano YC, Suisun City

Environment of the Sea: No report.

Gam/Historian/Newsletter: No Report.

Cruising We Do: No Report

Everyone present thoroughly enjoyed the annual crab feed! Station members Rick Wood (our bartender), Chris Parkman, Joan McCune, Robby & Dolores Robinson (who helped set up & clean up), Lynn Hurst and Jane VanBlaricom (who manned the reception table) along with PSPYC members were instrumental to the success of the event and deserve a “Pat on the Back.”

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Robby Robinson
Rear Commodore
